

FINDING MISS RIGHT

Genesis 2:18 · Proverbs 18:22

God is the author of marriage

GENESIS 2:18

“And the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him.”

HELP MEET

The founder of marriage

God is the author and proprietor of an institution called marriage.

A helper that fits

Adam alone was unsatisfactory, so God gave him a helper suitable and complementary (Amplified).

Since Adam, you have to find her

GENESIS 3:12

Defending himself, Adam said: “It is the woman you gave me who gave me the fruit.”

Since then, God stopped giving
‘woman’.
You have to find.

PROVERBS 18:22

*“Whoso findeth a wife findeth
a good thing, and obtaineth favour of the LORD.”*

Who is Miss Right?

Miss Right is the woman who meets all the requirements in the different versions of Genesis 2:18.

How to find her?

Hear God

You must have heard God saying it is not good for you to be alone. Be convinced it is God speaking to you, and not flesh.

Become Mr Right

Attracting her for marriage is not about tricks. It is about you becoming Mr Right, following these biblical patterns.

Become grounded in God first

Matthew 6:33

Seek first His kingdom. A godly woman looks for a man already walking with God, not a man who is just looking for a wife.

Genesis 2:15

Get your purpose and work in order first, like Adam, before Eve came in 2:18-24. Be engaged in earning your living.

Infatuation

A student or an apprentice still learning a trade is not yet attracting Miss Right. That stage is called infatuation.

No work?

What is she coming to help you with? Don't be a loafer looking for Miss Right. Your parents are still feeding you.

Grow the character she is praying for

Ruth and Boaz

Ruth looks for a Boaz-type: faithful, provider, protector, kind.

Galatians 5:22-23

Fruit of the Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control.

1 Timothy 5:8

Be responsible and able to provide. Work with your own hands. Don't be a gigolo living off her parents' wealth.

1 Corinthians 13

Learn how to love correctly.

Miss Right, you too must work. Be productive, not just a consumer. Be profitably engaged.

Pray specifically, but live openly

Pray for her

Don't just pray to find her. Pray for her. Ask God for wisdom (James 1:5).

Live openly

Finding happens while living: serving in church, community and purpose. Not hiding (Proverbs 18:22).

TESTIMONY I found my wife in the church. When God told me, I argued because of the age gap. She proved God's point (Genesis 24:14-19).

Guard your path

2 Timothy 2:22

Flee youthful lusts. Purity signals seriousness.

1 Corinthians 6:18
1 Thessalonians 4:3-5

Biblical attraction is built on honor, not pressure or sex.

Proverbs 31:10-31

Study what a virtuous woman values, so you know what to appreciate beyond beauty.

Position yourself wisely

Serve where godly women are

Church, volunteering, Bible study.
Not clubs or DMs.

Be available and presentable

Miss Right won't come and meet you in your room.

Build godly friendships first

Proverbs 17:17
Ecclesiastes 4:9-10

Let people connect you

If necessary, let people who know your character introduce you.

Be intentional

Clear intentions, as God said: "You are going to be my wife."

Honor her parents and pastor

Respect their opinion, and keep your communication open.

Checklist before you approach

Am I spiritually leading myself?

Am I working and financially disciplined?

Am I emotionally healed and not desperate?

Can a pastor or mentor vouch for my character?

Biblically...

You don't chase Miss Right. You prepare, you pray, you pursue purpose, and you recognize her when God brings her across your path.
